Notes to Financial Statements

March 31, 2017

1 Nature of operations

- a) The objectives of Irrigation Crop Diversification Corporation ("ICDC or "the corporation") are as follows:
- i) to research and demonstrate to producers and irrigation districts profitable agronomic practices for irrigated crops;
  - ii) to develop or assist in developing varieties of crops suitable for irrigated conditions;
  - iii) to provide land, facilities and technical support to researchers in order to conduct research into irrigation technology, cropping systems and soil and water conservation measures under irrigation and to provide information respecting that research to district consumers, irrigation districts and the public; and
  - iv) to co-operate with the Minister of Saskatchewan Agriculture in promoting and developing sustainable irrigation in Saskatchewan.
- b) ICDC was established under the Irrigation Act of 1996. ICDC is not an agent of the Crown. Membership consists of Irrigation Districts established throughout the province of Saskatchewan. ICDC is a non-profit organization exempt from Income Tax under section 149(1)(j) of the Income Tax Act.

ICDC competes for funding from government programs, grower's associations and any other opportunities it encounters. ICDC is a partner of the Canada Saskatchewan Irrigation Diversification Centre (CSIDC) conducting specific research, the results of which are transmitted to ICDC as well as to the funding entities. Levies assessed on Irrigation Districts and other irrigated lands are also used to fund research as well as the operating costs of the corporation.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

- a) Basis of presentation

These financial statements are presented in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations ("ASNPO").

- b) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with ASNPO requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenue and expenditures during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Notes to Financial Statements

c) Tangible capital assets

Tangible capital assets are recorded at cost and amortized over their expected useful lives. Tangible capital assets are depreciated at the following rates and methods, with the exception of one-half the given rates in the year of purchase:

Equipment	20% declining balance
Computer equipment	30% declining balance
Motor vehicles	30% declining balance

d) Revenue recognition

Member levies are recognized in the period they are earned. Refunds are recognized using the accrual method based on actual requests submitted by Irrigation Districts.

The corporation follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions, including research contracts, project funding and operating grants. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured. Restricted contributions for expenses of the current period are recognized as revenue in the current period and restricted contributions for expenses of one or more future periods are deferred and recognized as revenue in the same period or periods as the related expenses are recognized.

Contributions of materials and services are recognized only when a fair value can be reasonably estimated and when the materials and services are used in the normal course of the corporation's operations and would otherwise have been purchased.

e) Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities, consisting of cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities are initially recognized at fair value and subsequent measurement is at amortized cost. The corporation does not consider itself to have significant exposure to credit risk, currency risk, interest rate risk, liquidity risk, market risk or other price risk.

3 Change in accounting policy

During the year ended March 31, 2017 the corporation changed its accounting policy for contributions to follow the deferral method. In previous periods, the corporation followed the restricted fund method with respect to accounting for contributions. The corporation considers the new policy to be preferable as the restricted fund established was not utilized in prior periods. This change in accounting policy has been applied retrospectively to the prior period financial statements. There were no adjustments required to the year ended March 31, 2017, or prior periods, due to this change in accounting policy.
